FIRING ON YANGTZE
JAPANESE BOAT SUFFERS.

Rengo to Chronicle

Shanghai, March 5.

One passenger and one member of the crew on the Nisshin Kisen Kaisha steamer Nanyo-maru were killed when some 50 Chinese soldiers fired on the vessel yesterday afternoon as she was proceeding down the Yangtze from Hankow.

It is believed that the soldiers were Cantonese.

The Daikichi-maru of the same steam-ship line was also fired at on March 3rd near Wuhu, but no one was injured.
